Hello, my name is Andrea Vallee and I have been cooking in the school system for many years. My mission is to provide your child a delicious and nutritious homemade meal. I will be sourcing locally, as much as possible. Our menu will vary with the seasons and will be affordably priced. With that in mind, choices of sides, salads and soups will vary depending on what is fresh, available and in season.

Please feel free to contact me with any questions that you might have.
